About

I am Sushanth Manikanta, a B.Tech student at KL University specialising in Computer Science Engineering. I'm passionate about technology and enjoy learning how AI and programming can be used to solve real-world problems. Currently, I'm learning Java to strengthen my programming fundamentals and improve my understanding of object-oriented concepts. Beyond academics, I'm interested in music, photography, and exploring new places. I enjoy staying active, improving myself, and learning new things that challenge me. My goal is to build a successful career in the technology field while developing creative and practical ideas that can make a positive impact.
